Rx EYE CREAM

eye • cream ['i] ['krēm]

Gently dab around the eye area with your ring finger twice a day to minimize fine lines, dark circles and crow's-feet. "Skin around the eyes is one of the most delicate areas and needs to be treated separately," says Kaplan. Look for a cream that has antiaging agents like beta-glucan.

Rx SERUM

se-rum ['sir-əm]

Apply an antioxidant-packed serum under your moisturizer to maximize its effectiveness. "The small molecular structure of serums aid the quick absorption of active ingredients into skin," says New York City dermatologist Laurie Polis.

Rx MOISTURIZER

Bind moisture to skin with a cream. Daytime formulas should contain an SPF of at least 15 to protect against UV damage, advises Kaplan. Pre-bed, "choose a richer cream with vitamin C and peptides to fight free radicals and boost collagen production," he says.

► Maggie Gyllenhaal's pick: Jurlique Purely Age-Defying Day Cream with SPF 15. ($45, jurlique.com)

Extra Essentials

NECK CREAM

Reduce sagging skin with a cream such as Goblet Goop by Miss Ooops. "The neck is an aging hot spot," says Uma Thurman's facialist Joanna Czech. ($24, missoops.com)

LIP BALM

Banish wrinkles and plump up thinning lips with a hydrating and smoothing balm. Try Malin + Goetz Mojito Lip Balm. ($12, malinandgoetz.com)

TREND WATCH

CELEBS' MIXED-METALLIC EYES

Eye do! Lately, lovelies including Maria Menounos and Heidi Klum are updating their smoky eyes with metallic shades of purple, pink and green. "The cool, icy tones are striking for summer," Klum's makeup pro Linda Hay tells Us. Line top and lower lashes with black, then blend a metallic hue on top and smudge it into the crease to make eyes look larger, says Hay. Finish the look with a swipe of white highlighter at the inner corners.

► Try Physicians Formula Shimmer Strips for hazel eyes, an all-in-one eyeliner, eye shadow and highlighter. ($9, drugstores)

HOLLYWOOD'S HIP NEW BOB

Young starlets such as Selena Gomez and Ashley Olsen are showing off this summer's short and sassy style. "Layering just on the very ends gives it a 'swingy' quality that makes it modern," says celeb stylist Tommy Buckett (who has worked with Olsen). "It looks best on girls with heart- or oval-shaped faces." To style, wrap sections around a 1½-inch curling iron and gently break up strands with fingers for a tousled effect.
